Graduates land jobs in short order

LAS VEGAS – A number of recent graduates and alumni from The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) landed jobs in their chosen profession after completing their courses. TISOH specializes in practical, short-term training certificate and diploma programs for hospitality professionals pursuing career development and people seeking to enter the hospitality industry. Diploma graduates enjoy a 90 percent job placement rate.

Lucia Tovalin received her TISOH certificate in wedding coordination and design. She has been hired as an event coordinator at By Dzign in Las Vegas. Tovalin worked at Vic Vegas Catering prior to pursuing her TISOH certificate.

Karen Gualajara received her TISOH certificate in hotel operations and has been hired as a guest services agent at Caesars Palace. Gualajara had worked as a box office attendant for a local ticket brokering company.

Likewise, Bailey Dutton earned her TISOH executive diploma in hospitality operations with an emphasis in events. She has been hired as a furniture, fixtures and equipment expeditor at Caesars Entertainment. She previously worked as a bowling ambassador for a local bowling alley.

Ivette Retirado earned her TISOH certificates in hotel operations and the art of concierge. She has been hired as a concierge at Entertainment Benefits Group in Las Vegas. She previously worked as a passenger service agent for Las Vegas-based Allegiant Air.

About The International School of Hospitality

The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) was founded in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2005. TISOH offers quality short-term, practical training and career development programs in hospitality. Developed for the industry and by the industry, TISOH's small class sizes and online courses include: concierge, conference management and event planning, catering, hospitality leadership and supervision, hospitality human resources, hotel operations, and wedding coordination and design. Diploma graduates, trained by working experts in the field, enjoy a 90 percent job placement rate. TISOH is an academic partner of the American Hotel & Lodging Educational Institute and is accredited by the Accrediting Council for Continuing Education and Training.
