The International School of Hospitality Announces Spring 2011 Schedule

Las Vegas, December 28, 2010 – The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) today announced its 2011 spring classroom schedule for seven certificate and two diploma hospitality courses. The semester begins the week of January 24 and continues for three to six months. Certificate programs include: Conference Management & Event Planning, Wedding Coordination & Design, The Art of Concierge, Event Design & Production, Art of Food & Beverage, Meeting & Event Catering, and Hospitality Leadership & Supervision. Diploma programs are vocational and provide comprehensive learning in a specific field with relevant management training. Courses are specially designed to accommodate working schedules. Enrollment is limited. TISOH's campus is conveniently located close to McCarran International Airport at 3614 E. Sunset Road, Suite 110.

In addition, TISOH announced the schedules for three, 5-week FASTtrack certificate programs in Conference Management & Event Planning, Hotel Operations and Wedding Coordination & Design, all beginning March 14, 2011. A separate FASTtrack program in Hospitality Human Resources begins January 24, 2011, FASTtrack programs meet daily and feature the same instructional team of credentialed industry professional instructors.

All TISOH programs are available online with rolling admissions. Online programs at TISOH are self-paced, feature audio/visual PowerPoint presentations with one-to-one instruction. Students can start whenever enrollment procedures are complete.

Separately, the school announced the presentation of the fall 2010 graduation class at a ceremony and reception held at the JW Marriott Resort in Las Vegas. With over a hundred in attendance, the event celebrated another successful semester of meeting the school's mission of serving the hospitality industry.
